Missed the Accessories.
"In this the barroom?" asked a strapping looking fellow in a cockskin cap and a buttoned suit as he eyed the piles of glasses and glittering bottles.
"Certainly, sir; what'll you have, sir?" answered and inquired the white aproned attendant.
"I reckon not," responded cool man, glancing around suspiciously. "Where's the barrels you sit on?"
"We keep the barrels in the cellar."
"Where's the glass tins?" around the stove ready to wait up at the sight of order.
"We don't allow any sitting around here. When a gentleman drinks he goes out."
"Where's the man with his eye gone out?" demanded cool man in a whisper.
"We don't have any such parties here. Can I do anything for you?"
"Ain't ye got any odd nose somewhere?" asked the visitor with a worried expression.
"No, we haven't," responded the barkeeper firmly.
"Will the man who tonahawks strangers be in directly?" interrogated cool man after a short pause.
"Don't know any such man. If you want anything, ask for it."
"But the fellow who shoots the glass out of your mouth without spilling the wine; where might he be?"
"Perhaps you'd better go away from here. I think you'd better get out of here."
"Say them words again, pardner. That sounds like it. That's natural."
"Get out of it, I'll throw you out."
"Oh, now you're whispering, stranger! Sit it over to me! Club me once or twice. Put a bullet through this high lung! Put a skewer through that left kidney of mine. You're a mountin' now. Gimme some judgin' and rum. Talk to me again. Why didn't you declare yourself at once, pardner? Why did you hold back? Thru the tan bar!"
And he poured out an alcoholic dose and poured it, paid for it and walked off.
A Montana man can't enjoy his whiskey in a barroom that doesn't in some way remind him of home.

The Power of the Press.
In no way is the power of the press more surely shown than in the universal knowledge that has in less than a year, been diffused throughout fifty millions of people of the wonderful curative properties of that splendid remedy Kidney Wort. And the people from the Atlantic to the Pacific have shown their intelligence and their knowledge of what is in the papers, by already making Kidney Wort their household remedy for all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bowels.—Herald.

Prof. EDISON'S POLYFORM.

After much persuasion, Prof. Edison has been prevailed upon to give to the world his truly wonderful discovery for all skin diseases. For years he suffered from neuralgia, unable to find any remedy among the hundreds which he tried that would give him permanent ease. Finally he became convinced that he must become his own physician and seek, by experiments, for the desired relief. He had taken all the well known remedies, which gave only temporary relief, and produced nervousness, loss of appetite, etc. He now sought for a combination of such remedies as would, by outward application, cure him of his distress and at the same time not be injurious to his system.
Trials and experiments followed this determination until he at last produced a compound which by application, entirely subdued all pain and allowed his system to recuperate, and throw off the disease.
To his discovery Prof. Edison gave the name

POLYFORM.

Gratified with the result upon himself, he tried his discovery upon others who suffered from nervous pain, and in every case the relief was perfect. The cures performed by his gift of Polyform became so celebrated and the demand upon his time and attention so great, Prof. Edison finally yielded to the solicitation of those who knew the merits of his preparation and allowed a company to be formed for the manufacture and sale of Polyform under his supervision.
The number of remarkable cures, and the suffering Polyform has saved, attest the wisdom and philosophy of this course.
No higher testimony could be adduced than the certificate of Prof. Edison, who authorizes the publication of the following:

I CERTIFY THAT THE PREPARATION KNOWN AS EDISON'S POLYFORM IS MADE ACCORDING TO THE FORMULA DEVISED AND USED BY MYSELF.

THOMAS A. EDISON.
For many other complaints, besides Neuralgia, such as Rheumatism, Headaches, Sciatica, Gout, Pain in Back or Side, or wherever pain exists, without abrasion of the skin, Polyform will give prompt relief.

A Splendid Surgical Operation—Successful Result and Wonderful Recovery.

SURGICAL OPERATION.—The operation of lithotomy (removal of stone from the bladder), one of the most severe and critical operations known to the science of surgery, was successfully performed on Tuesday night, Mr. Henry H. Pitts, a merchant of this city, by Dr. David Kennedy. Several friends of the patient witnessed the operation. Mr. Pitts has suffered several years from this difficulty, but it was only a week before the operation that he was made aware of the real cause of his complaint.

RECOVERY.—Mr. Henry H. Pitts has recovered from the effects incident to the operation, the closing of the wound being completed on the 18th day. His general health is good—better than it has been for years, while he has perfectly free from all the distressing symptoms characteristic of the disease which he suffered. Had this and similar cases like Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy," the early stages of the complaint the formation of stone would have been prevented. "Favorite Remedy" also purifies the blood, cures Constipation of the bowels, and all those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to females. This wonderful medicine is now for sale by all druggists. $1 a bottle.

THE POWER OF THE PRESS.

In no way is the power of the press more surely shown than in the universal knowledge that has in less than a year, been diffused throughout fifty millions of people of the wonderful curative properties of that splendid remedy Kidney Wort. And the people from the Atlantic to the Pacific have shown their intelligence and their knowledge of what is in the papers, by already making Kidney Wort their household remedy for all diseases of the kidneys, liver and bowels.—Herald.

"What luck did you have fishing yesterday, Breckenridge?" asked a Galveston gentleman of a well known impetuous character who owes everybody. "Splendid! While I was out on the wharf today I caught a catfish and at my home to catch money."—Galveston News.

Nicomopolis: Young Milkington Sopley (a follower of Postelwate's)—"A—y—y—y you are not the Climax Brown's last night Miss Diana?" Miss Diana (who does not like Esthetes)—"No. Were you?" Sopley—"Oh yes, indeed." Miss Diana—"Aye, was it a pleasant party?" Sopley—"Most consummately so!" Miss Diana—"And were you very much admired?"—London Fun.

"Have you seen my daughter's baby?" inquired a fond grandmother of a friend. "Oh, yes—but it is so small, so very small," was the reply. "This was to be expected, you know, don't you, that was attended by a homoeopathic doctor?" replied G. M. with a look of her head.
